Profile

Marisa is an artist and technician working in the camera department as a digital utility, AC, and cam op on commercials, films, and tv shows. She also directs her own projects and aspires to continue creating art as a platform for different viewpoints. Marisa completed her Master in Visual and Digital Media on a Fulbright Scholarship from IE in Madrid, Spain in 2018. She also received her Bachelor of Journalism in Documentary and Bachelor of Arts in Spanish from the University of Missouri in Columbia in 2017. Since graduating from school, she has worked in the film industry and continues to grow in her craft. As Marisa writes, directs, and works in the camera department, she brings passion, drive, and a unique perspective from her life experiences.
